

THE MURDER OF LAKEMAN

Pembroke Murderer Not Insane; Family of 7 SLAIN IN COLD BLOOD

Not Now Believed That Ayer Was Out of His Senses When He Committed Crime.
Fight Over Property Accepted as the Cause of the Atrocious Deed.

Special to the Boston American.
PEMBROKE, N. H., Jan. 13.—That Charles F. Ayer was sane when he slew his wife and five children in their beds and killed his mother-in-law, then setting fire to the house to hide his crime and afterward killing himself, is now the theory of the authorities.

Investigations show that Ayer had quarrelled bitterly with his brothers and sisters-in-law over the sale of the house in which he committed his horrible crime. He wanted his wife's relatives to sign over their interests in Isaac Lakeman's estate to Mrs. Lakeman. This they refused to do, fearing that Ayer, who was always a never-dowell and had a horror for work, would force the aged woman to sign over the estate to him. He also wanted $100 from Mrs. Ayer's relatives so he might live without working during the winter.

Wholesale murderer, his wife and photograph of ruins where bodies of his victims were found.

These quarrels, and threats that he had made to turn the house, came the author's life to believe that he deliberately planned out his horrible murder, and when he finally realized the horror of his terrible crime sent him reeling into his brain, causing his miserable victim.

Mother-in-Law Shot.
The murder in which the family and mother-in-law were killed is a well-known fact. That Mrs. Lakeman was shot and her body found in the ruins of the house, taken from the scene yesterday, is a story told in a different and halfhearted twenty-two-cent bullet at the base of the skull. The bullet was apparently fired from the same weapon as Ayer used to kill himself with, the gun of his brother-in-law, George A. Bailey of Chelmsford.

The response is the most disastrous defeat ever inflicted on the English party, against "Chamberlain's" protectionist, gradual, criminal, extravagant, the disaster and the power of the British party, however, friendly to Home Rule, the new Parliament will meet next week, and the Irish party will have a majority in the House of Commons.

WHITE CALLED FROM EUROPE

Summons Sent to Mrs. Depew After Conference of Physicians, Including Well-Known Alienists—Mystery About Condition, Which Is Said to Be Serious.

NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—Senator Chauncey M. Depew has broken down under the strain of the past few months. He is at his home, No. 27 West Fifty-fourth street, suffering from a nervous attack that threatens a mental collapse. How serious is his condition is gathered from the fact that his intimate friends are informed that he has been the subject of a prolonged conference of physicians, including prominent alienists.

The recent political events, the insurance investigation and the demand in certain quarters that he resign his seat in the United States Senate, are believed to have been the causes of his breakdown. Mrs. Depew, who is abroad, has been sent for.

Every effort is being made to prevent the seriousness of the Senator's condition from becoming public. Charles C. Pankling, a nephew, gave out a statement that the Senator's condition is not regarded as alarming, and that he is much better to-day than yesterday.

NO INTENTION OF RESIGNING.
To the Senator's secretary it was suggested that a current rumor had it that Senator Depew had decided to resign. This rumor was made. "I can tell you positively that the Senator has not the least intention of resigning."

Men Stood Near Engine.
There are about thirty men employed by the company and some of them were standing within ten feet of the boiler when it burst.

Friday Will Be a Day of Amazing Bargain Opportunities: Prices Marked Down for Quick Stock Reduction

A FORCEFUL demonstration of the manner in which Henry Siegel Co. reduces prices when the object is a reduction of stocks. Everybody knows that this has been a backward season. So far there has, practically, been no winter at all, and thousands of dollars' worth of goods that should have been sold weeks ago remain in stock. These goods must be disposed of, if low prices will make them go. We have, therefore, begun a rigid inspection of merchandise, and the blue pencil has been busy marking the prices down to the very minimum. The result is values new to Boston:

Unprecedented Friday Bargains in Remnants and Mill Ends of Dress Goods

PRICES are but shadows of what these fabrics are actually worth. There are hundreds of lengths suitable for full suits, separate skirts, waists, and misses' and children's dresses. The patterns are the very latest and in every respect equal those commanding three times as much in our regular stock.

One of the greatest mills in New England sold us its entire accumulation of Mill Ends, and to these we have added our accumulation of remnants remaining from two months' selling. In the collection there are Plaids, Checks, Mannish Suitings, Velvings, Cheviots, Voiles, Albatross, Serges, India Twills, Henriettas, Batiste, Panamas, Eolinnies, Crepe de Chines, Broadcloths, Melrose, Prunelles, Sicillians, Fancy Cheviots, Poplins and many of the season's choicest effects. These offerings have been arranged on special counters and priced at

SPORTS BOSTON AMERICAN EXPERTS

JOE GANS AND MIKE SULLIVAN, WHO MEET TO-NIGHT

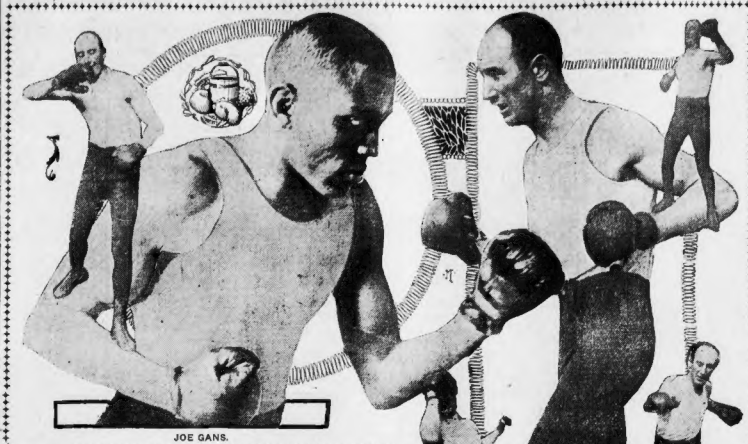

WHOLE WORLD OF SPORTS

GLADIATORS ARE IN TRIM

Colored Fighter Will Try to Redeem Himself with Sports Against Mike "Twin."

By Longest Leased Wire in World.
SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 18.—It seems strange that a fighter who has been so many times defeated should be so anxious to fight again. Joe Gans was never so anxious for the going. He had that tonight's fight will put him right with the San Francisco sporting public and wants to show that he is really capable when fighting at a weight that suits him.

The dusky fighter has prepared himself with exceptional care for tonight's contest, and his friends with every passing minute. Many began to drop into the hotel here yesterday and continued until late in the night, with Gans always favorite. He was seen in the evening, but never before at ten to six, and it is not that Joe will enter the ring a decided loser, although there seems to be plenty of Sullivan money in sight.

JOE GANS.

JOE GANS AGAIN DEBIES AN UNPROBABLE

NEW YORK, Jan. 18.—Although he spent the day in town yesterday, Basil Johnson, the president of the American League, did not hold the intended scheduled conference with President Pulliam of the National League because of the fact that Johnson's secretary, Robert McFar, did not get in from Chicago until late in the afternoon. But the conflict will be held today, with the result that future league will change the date of its opening game here on April 14, instead of the 17th as a matter of fact. The New York Americans would prefer to be away from the hotel ball park until May 1, but as there must be no opening here in April the date will be advanced a few days. Johnson will probably follow after which Griffiths will go away in search of warm weather. The National League, without consulting either Pulliam or the American League, decided some time ago to open its season for the Americans in Chicago, which the National League believed this would prove a handicap for the Americans in Chicago, which the National League believed this would prove a handicap for the Americans in Chicago, which the National League believed this would prove a handicap for the Americans in Chicago.

GRITTI'S DOWNFALL

"What about the downfall of Howard C. Griffiths and George Tebeau?" was an "other" question.

"It was a hard battle, wasn't it?" asked Johnson, as he turned the other side of the subject.

"I have just appointed a new rules committee," he continued, "which will confer with the National League committee here next month. The committee is composed of Clark Griffith, George Black and B. F. Felt."

These experts will meet Harry Hyatt, C. W. Murphy and Edward Hines of the National League, to go over the present rules. Johnson believes that the new rules will be better, but he has left that matter to the committee. He believes that the new rules will be better, but he has left that matter to the committee. He believes that the new rules will be better, but he has left that matter to the committee.

MIKE TWIN SULLIVAN.

RECORD CROWDS AT NEW YORK AUTO SHOWS

BY DUNCAN CURRY.
NEW YORK, Jan. 18.—The auto show has gone mad on the subject of automobiles or a motor car boom is on the rise of which was never known before in the history of an industry.

Nearly fifteen thousand have visited the two shows during the past few days, or an average of about 30,000 a day, and by closing time in some cases fully 20,000 people will have visited the two exhibits.

Morning, noon and night the streets are crowded and the sidewalks are almost as continuous as street car tracks. As the week advances, the appearance of the exhibits is more and more impressive. It is noticeable that there is no lack of interest in the exhibits, and that the exhibits are more and more impressive.

Special Business Car Frames.

One of the big features of the show is the exhibit of business car frames. Every style of draft vehicle is there, from the lightest runabout delivery wagon, built to hold only 1,000 pounds, up to the big trucks, some of which are capable of carrying a load of five tons.
